

Associate Membership Application

The Caribbean Cable and Telecommunications Association is a non-profit trade association for the cable television and telecommunications industry in the Caribbean. The objectives of the Association are to foster and promote the development of cable television service; promote cooperation and understanding among its members; encourage and promote high standards of service and conduct which will be for the best interests of the public and the cable television industry; protect its members in every lawful manner from unjust attacks and exactions and advance their mutual interests; disseminate information and broaden the public understanding of the cable television and telecommunications industry's role in the community; and carry on any operation or activity in connection with the foregoing objectives.

APPLICATION FOR ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

The undersigned hereby applies for Associate Membership privileges in the Caribbean Cable and Telecommunications Association, a trade association organized under the laws of the Territory of the Virgin Islands as a non-profit corporation.

Applicant certifies to being engaged in the manufacture or distribution of equipment, materials, or services used by the cable television and telecommunications industry, or otherwise involved in the industry, and does hereby agree to subscribe to and abide by the Bylaws of the Association as now or may be duly amended from time to time. All members shall appear on the CCTA Web site. For those companies who maintain international components, they may choose one of the following options: (a) separate listings on the CCTA web site for the domestic and international divisions, and hence two separate memberships and two separate membership dues; or (b) one listing on the web site which shall include one address only and one representative, and consequently the company will be considered as a single entity and pay dues as one member.

Membership shall become effective upon approval by the Board of Directors.
